

SATURDAY 11 APRIL 2026

Fabric bound for landfill was collected from tailor shops

Took part 12
Where aikyam space, Fort Kochi
Run by Mary Gracy

Facilitators 1
Club Stitching Club

Fabric pieces once headed for landfills were collected from local tailor shops and boutiques by a community member. Now, through sorting and care, they are being given a second life, slowly turning waste into something meaningful.

The text of this report is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0). To view a copy of the license, visit <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>. Photographs: all rights reserved.