

TUESDAY 15 SEPTEMBER 2026

Fabric construction for precise 4cm × 4cm squares

Took part 4
Where aikyam space, Fort Kochi
Run by Shabana K H

Facilitators 1
Club Stitching Club

We achieved precise 4cm × 4cm base squares by ironing fabric onto stiff paper with adhesive backing, which provided structural consistency for assembly. Combining handloom fabric with canvas and paper layers created dense material resistance, making needle penetration difficult with standard hand tools. To maintain precision without straining the assembly, future iterations will explore finer needles and lightweight primary fabrics, reserving heavy handloom textiles exclusively for the final outer layers.

Communication

The text of this report is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0). To view a copy of the license, visit <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>. Photographs: all rights reserved.